Second-Year Haitian Creole

Indiana University

FLAS Eligible

Dates: June 3 - July 26, 2019
Indiana University (Bloomington, IN)

This intensive program is for students who have elementary proficiency in Haitian Creole and want to develop their speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills. Students who complete the course successfully complete the equivalent of the 2nd-Year curriculum at Indiana University and will reach a proficiency of Intermediate Mid or better. They will be able to function effectively in a Haitian Creole-speaking environment; will be able to understand and work with authentic materials, including news, videos, podcasts, chats, stories, articles on familiar topics, etc.; and will have a solid foundation for travel or advanced study. The program develops familiarity with Haitian culture through work with authentic materials and media, as well as Haitian Creole activities and structured interactions with Haitian Creole speakers.

Cost: Estimated total undergraduate tuition and fees is $3700 and graduate tuition is $3600. On-campus housing is available for $1800.

Dates:

Summer B Term: June 17-July 28, 2019

Miami Portion: June 17-July 12, 2019

Haiti Portion (Space is limited): July 14-July 28, 2019

Program Summary:

Now entering its 22nd year, the Haitian Summer Institute is a six-week program designed for anyone interested in acquiring basic conversational proficiency in Haitian Creole and also for those students who wish to continue their Haitian Creole Language training at the intermediate and advanced levels. The FLAS-approved institute begins at FIU's Modesto Maidique Campus in Miami and culminates with an optional study abroad to Haiti, which provides participants with a unique opportunity to further immerse themselves in Haitian Creole while experiencing the country first-hand.

The program begins with intensive Haitian Creole language training in Miami which is divided into two tracks. Students participating in the Miami portion have two enrollment options: Accelerated Beginning Haitian Creole for the first half of the Miami portion and Accelerated Intermediate Haitian Creole for the final half of the Miami portion, or Accelerated Intermediate Haitian Creole for the first half of the Miami portion and Accelerated Advanced Haitian Creole for the final half. In addition to the Institute's intensive language courses, participants are introduced to Haitian history and culture through lectures in English and Haitian Creole presented by nationally-recognized Haitianists and Diasporic leaders, film, technical training sessions and tours of Miami's Little Haiti neighborhood. Classes in Miami are held Monday through Friday and include a morning and afternoon session. Housing is available on campus at an additional cost*.

The study abroad is designed to further expose students to Haiti, its culture and its people through a highly-structured trip to Haiti. Participation in the Study Abroad is required for FLAS Fellows, but optional for others. Space is limited and priority is given to FLAS Fellows and degree-seeking graduate students, although professionals/non-traditional students are encouraged to apply.

Application & Deadline:

All applicants are encouraged to submit the application packet, along with the required supporting materials to the Kimberly Green Latin American and Caribbean Center by 5:00pm on May 3, 2019 (Applications may be accepted after May 3, 2019, but space is not guaranteed). FIU also offers K-12, Community College, and HBCU Educator Grants. Please consult the application website for more information. <https://lacc.fiu.edu/academics/haitian-summer-institute/>
