
2017 Américas Award

Children's and Young Adult Literature

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Rationale

To encourage and commend authors, illustrators and publishers who produce quality children's and young adult books that portray Latin America, the Caribbean, or Latinos in the United States, and to provide teachers with recommendations for classroom use, the national Consortium of Latin American Studies Programs (CLASP) offers up to two annual book awards, together with a commended list of titles.

Criteria

Up to two awards (for primary and secondary reading levels) are given in recognition of U.S. published works of fiction, poetry, folklore, or selected non-fiction (from picture books to works for young adults) that authentically and engagingly portray Latin America, the Caribbean, or Latinos in the United States. By linking the Americas, the intent is to reach beyond geographic borders, as well as multicultural-international boundaries, focusing instead upon cultural heritages within the hemisphere. Books will be judged for: 1) Distinctive literary quality; 2) Cultural contextualization; 3) Exceptional integration of text, illustration and design; and 4) Potential for classroom use.

Eligibility

- The book must be published in 2016.
- The title may be for primary or secondary reading levels.
- Language of publication may be English, Spanish, Portuguese, or any language indigenous to the Americas.
- The book must be published in the United States or by a publisher with offices within the U.S.
- Submissions may be fiction, poetry, folklore, or selected non-fiction.
- A book will only be considered in its first year of publication in the United States. A book originally published in the U.S. in English with a translated edition in a subsequent year will only be eligible the first year of the edition.

Process

To nominate a 2016 copyright title, publishers are invited to submit review copies to the committee members listed on the reverse of this sheet by January 2, 2017. There is no entry fee.

The list of award winners, honorable mention and commended titles will be announced in the spring of 2017, recognizing works published in 2016. The formal award presentation will be held during Hispanic Heritage Month 2017 at The Library of Congress in Washington, D.C.
