Summary

On the corner of American Street and Joy Road, Fabiola Toussaint thought she would finally find une belle vie—a good life.

But after they leave Port-au-Prince, Haiti, Fabiola’s mother is detained by U.S. immigration, leaving Fabiola to navigate her loud American cousins, Chantal, Donna, and Princess; the grittiness of Detroit’s west side; a new school; and a surprising romance, all on her own.

Just as she finds her footing in this strange new world, a dangerous proposition presents itself, and Fabiola soon realizes that freedom comes at a cost. Trapped at the crossroads of an impossible choice, will she pay the price for the American dream?

Author’s Bio

FUN BIO: Ibi Zoboi was born in Haiti and immigrated to New York with her mother when she was four years-old. Everything about her new home was both strange and magical. This is why she loves reading and writing science-fiction, fantasy, and mythology. Ibi wears lots of bright colors and is a huge fan of mangos, avocados, dry humor, long-winded storytellers, and modest skirts. She also smiles, laughs, and cries often—sometimes all at once. She lives in Maplewood, New Jersey with her three children, her husband the art teacher, and three pet turtles named Lucky, Jade, and Leo.

To conclude the novel, the educator may choose to have students write an essay or complete a project.

Essay prompt suggestions:
- Kasim means “divided amongst many”. Why did the author, Ibi Zoboi, choose to use the name Kasim? Consider the symbolism and how it contributes to the overall theme of the book.
- Papa Legba is a unique character that shows up throughout the book. Analyze how the different characters understand Papa Legba and how he impacts the novel as a whole. (Increase difficulty of assignment by having students complete research on traditional Haitian beliefs and practices of Vodou and relate research to why Fabiola thinks Papa Legba is the Iwa).
- Considering everything that happened after moving to America, do you think that Fabiola’s mother would make the same choice to move to Detroit if she were able to go back in time?

Projects:
- Theme poster and gallery walk
- Character Analysis
- Bonus:
  - Literary BINGO
